Psalms of

THANKSGIVING

“Human beings are relentless storytellers. Our stories allow us to make sense of our lives. They are the means by which we conquer chaos and make meaning. Through stories we fashion a conception of our own identity and form meaningful connections with others. We connect scenes, trace patterns, and discover plots in order to bring order to what would otherwise be a random assemblage of one thing after another.”

“It's the kind of love that someone demonstrates when they're keeping a promise, and when the desire to be loyal to their promise motivates them to go above and beyond, to be super generous, more than what you would expect—that is hesed.”

- Tim Mackie, Bible Project Podcast

“The gospel is this: We are more sinful and flawed in ourselves than we ever dared believe, yet at the very same time we are more loved and accepted in Jesus Christ than we ever dared hope.”

- Timothy Keller, Meaning of Marriage

This is how God showed his love among us:
He sent his one and only Son into the world that we might live through him. ¹⁰ This is love:
not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as an atoning sacrifice for our sins.

Give thanks to the God of heaven.

“Jesus, unlike the founder of any other major faith, holds out hope for ordinary human life. Our future is not an ethereal, impersonal form of consciousness. We will not float through the air, but rather will eat, embrace, sing, laugh, and dance in the kingdom of God, in degrees of power, glory, and joy that we can't at the present imagine.”

- Timothy Keller, Prodigal God
